

#MYAPLSTORYWALK

DETAILS

#MyAPLStoryWalk is a StoryWalk experience created by you for you!
We are looking for your original stories and illustrations to create our next StoryWalk.

How to participate:

- Use the attached template to write and illustrate an original short story or scene from a story.
- Story, characters, and artwork must be original creations. Entries featuring copyrighted material will be disqualified.
- Limit one entry per person.
- Participation is limited to ages 18 and under only.
- This form and the completed template must be returned to the Children's Desk by Friday, February 11, 2022 at 6 p.m.
- #MyAPLStoryWalk with selected submissions will be displayed outside the Library during March and April 2022.
- All entries become property of the Allen Public Library and may be reproduced in print or digital form for promotional use. By submitting an entry, the artist agrees to allow Allen Public Library unrestricted use of submitted material. Submissions will not be returned.
- Selections will be made by a panel of judges comprised of Allen Public Library staff. Judges' decisions are final.

INSPIRATION

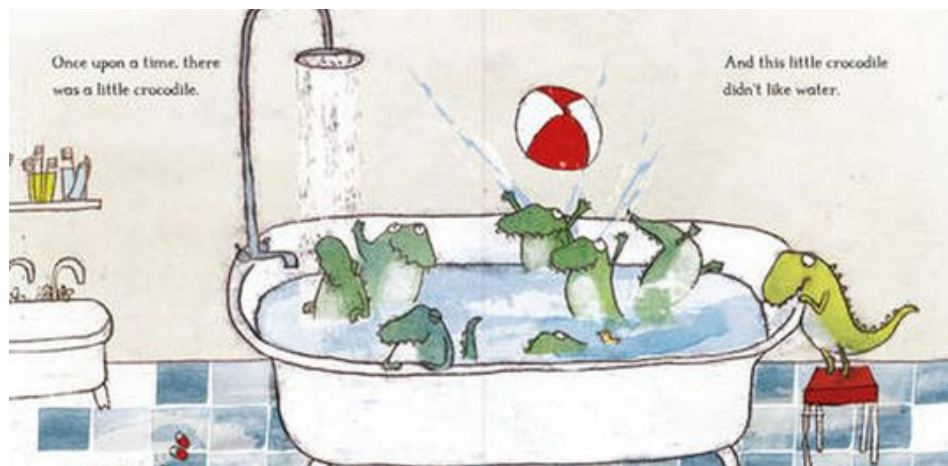

Need some inspiration? Here are some examples of signs from our previous StoryWalks. Although they are part of a story, they can also be enjoyed on their own. You can provide some details and then leave the rest for your readers to imagine! We are looking for original ideas and large, colorful illustrations.

It's a Tiger by David LaRoche (Chronicle Books, 2012)

Norman the Slug with the Silly Shell by Sue Hendra (Simon & Schuster, 2011)
